ACE Program

The Academic Resource Center offers a program called ACE (Assistance, Counseling, & Encouragement) for students in academic difficulty. It is designed for students who are capable of better academic performance, but need the skills, the direction, and the motivation to reach their academic goals. ACE participants meet with an ACE counselor on a weekly basis for private sessions that include goal-setting, study skills training and tutoring. The ACE Program is staffed by both professional counselors and peer counselors who are proficient at sorting out the factors that can affect academic performance.

R'Success Workshop Series

Every term, the Academic Resource Center (ARC) offers a series of study skills workshops, which are free of charge for registered UCR students. We encourage students to attend as many workshops as needed and then to visit with their peer mentors and professional staff for feedback and reflection on study skills development. R'Success provides students the flexibility to choose workshop sessions on various study and life skills workshops that align with their individual interests and schedule.
